

Learning Support Assistant

27 hours 5 minutes per week / 38 weeks per year (term time only)

Grade D, Point 3-4 (£11,321 to £11,547 Actual)

Would you like to be part of a school where the strengths and talents of students and staff are extremely valued (Ofsted February 2018)?

Would you like to work in a school where the culture of being happy and safe means pupils can, and do, enjoy being at school (Ofsted February 2018)?

Are you passionate about improving outcomes for young people?

If so, you will not want to miss out on the opportunity of becoming a Learning Support Assistant (LSA) at our school!

The successful candidate will be enthusiastic and committed to supporting those students who have additional needs. They will be able to relate to students in a calm, supportive and positive manner.

The post holder will either support the needs of all students on the SEN register within a subject department or specialise in supporting students with particular needs across the curriculum.

Experience is not necessary but we are looking for people with energy, enthusiasm and a positive attitude. Every day is different so we need people who are resilient and work well as part of a team.

For an application form and further details, please visit the vacancies page on our website. Alternatively, please email vacancies@latimer.org.uk

Please note we do not accept CVs as part of our application process.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. This post will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure.

The Latimer Arts College values the diversity of our workforce and welcomes applications from all sectors of the community.

Closing date for applications: Thursday 23 September 2021
