

Learning Support Assistant
31 hours per week / 38 weeks per year (term time only)
Grade D, Point 3-4 (£15,972 to £16,229 actual)

Would you like to be part of a school recently confirmed as GOOD by Ofsted (April 2023)?

“Pupils are happy to attend this school. The school’s values include honesty, excellence, ambition, respect and teamwork. The school’s culture is rooted in these values. There are positive relationships between staff and pupils. Staff have high expectations, and pupils live up to these”.

“Staff are proud to work at the school. They feel well supported by leaders in respect of workload, well-being and managing pupils’ behaviour. Staff value the professional development they receive”.

If so, you will not want to miss out on the opportunity of becoming a Learning Support Assistant (LSA) at our school. The Latimer Arts College is an OFSTED rated Good school with a positive reputation in the local community. Staff feel valued and supported.

The successful candidate will be enthusiastic and committed to supporting those students who have additional needs. They will be able to relate to students in a calm, supportive and positive manner.

The post holder will support the needs of students on the SEN register within a variety of lessons.

Experience is desirable but not essential, we are looking for people with energy, enthusiasm and a positive attitude. Every day is different so we need people who are resilient and work well as part of a team.

The hours of duty are 8.20am to 3:00pm (4 days a week) with an unpaid break of 40 minutes each day. One day a week the post holder would work until 4pm to support students attending Aspire our homework club.

For an application form and further details, please visit the vacancies page on our website. Alternatively, please email vacancies@latimer.org.uk

Please note we do not accept CVs as part of our application process.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. This post will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure.

The Latimer Arts College values the diversity of our workforce and welcomes applications from all sectors of the community.

Closing date: 3.00 pm on Tuesday 7 May 2024
