Would you like to work in a school where the culture of being happy and safe means pupils can, and do, enjoy being at school? (Ofsted February 2018)

Are you an outstanding teacher with the passion and motivation to inspire young people?

If so, then you will not want to miss out on the opportunity to be appointed as a Teacher of Religious Studies at our high-performing College, where students make progress that is above the national average.

Why come to Latimer? This is a fantastic school to work in: as a result of our success and popularity we are over-subscribed and have a very strong positive reputation. On interview we ask candidates for their impressions of the College and without fail they comment on how wonderful our students are, the supportive team ethos amongst staff and how friendly and welcoming the College is.

We are a tight-knit unit striving for the very best for our students and we are focussed on and passionate about learning.

We genuinely care about our staff, their well-being and their professional development: we are a happy team, committed to working collaboratively and sharing the very best practice and, amongst other things, we can offer:

- A laptop for every teacher
- Timetabled Work from Home (WFH) sessions
- Regular staff well-being activities
- Free access to our sporting facilities
- Free flu jab organised through a local pharmacy

If you are an outstanding teacher it really is worth applying for this post. We are seeking to appoint a candidate who is passionate about Religious Studies; a team player who will thrive on collaboration and team work; someone who really wants to make a difference! We are primarily looking for an applicant who can teach Religious Studies at KS3 and 4, although we are able to offer KS5 teaching. There may be a requirement to teach the other Humanities subjects of History and Geography at KS3 and we may be able to offer A Level Politics or Sociology for an interested candidate.

We welcome applications from ECTs and we run a highly supportive and successful Early Career Framework programme. If you are a trainee and looking for a post from September 2022, we would love to hear from you. We also have a strong track record of leadership development and succession planning and would be interested in an ambitious candidate who is keen to progress to leadership in the future.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure.

The Latimer Arts College values the diversity of our workforce and welcomes applications from all sectors of the community.
