

SEND Learning Mentor
NJC Grade G, point 8-12 (£16,579 - £17,947 Actual)
35 hours per week, 39 weeks per year
8.00am – 3.30pm

We seek to appoint a SEND Learning Mentor to provide direct support to students with social, emotional and mental health and communication and interaction needs. This role will be incredibly fulfilling!

The postholder would take the lead in implementing interventions and provisions to enable our SEND students to improve their attendance, behaviour for learning and academic performance. The successful candidate will be passionate about securing the very best outcomes for young people. They will be someone who can establish a positive and productive relationship with identified students ensuring their individual needs are met so that they are motivated and happy to engage in their learning. The successful candidate would also be confident in liaising with families and working in collaboration with colleagues and external professionals.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. This post will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure.

The Latimer Arts College values the diversity of our workforce and welcomes applications from all sectors of the community.

For an application form and further details, please contact Ms Ridley, Principal's PA, on 01536 720310 or email vacancies@latimer.org.uk.

Please note we do not accept CVs as part of our application process.

Closing date for applications: 9.00 am on Monday 24 January 2022
