Would you like to be part of a school recently confirmed as GOOD by Ofsted (April 2023)?

Pupils are happy to attend this school. The school's values include honesty, excellence, ambition, respect and teamwork. The school's culture is rooted in these values. There are positive relationships between staff and pupils. Staff have high expectations, and pupils live up to these.

Staff are proud to work at the school. They feel well supported by leaders in respect of workload, well-being and managing pupils' behaviour. Staff value the professional development they receive.

If so, the following opportunity could be right for you.

We seek to appoint a SEND Learning Mentor to provide direct support to students with a variety of needs, predominately cognition and learning needs. This role will be incredibly fulfilling!

The postholder would take the lead in implementing interventions and provisions to enable our SEND students to improve their attendance, behaviour for learning and academic performance. The successful candidate will be passionate about securing the very best outcomes for young people. They will be someone who can establish a positive and productive relationship with identified students ensuring their individual needs are met so that they are motivated and happy to engage in their learning. The successful candidate would also be confident in liaising with families and working in collaboration with colleagues and external professionals.

Hours of duty are 8.00am – 4.00pm Monday to Thursday and 8.00am-3.30pm Friday, with a 30 minute unpaid break each day.

The successful candidate will find a school that has an amazing team of staff, fantastic students and a real family ethos and climate. Full training can be given.
