Vacancies in our Performing Arts team do not arise very often and this post offers the successful candidate an opportunity to work alongside an outstanding team of colleagues in a high-performing school that is passionate about the value of the arts.

Although this post is part-time, a full time position may be available for a candidate who could also offer some English teaching.

On interview we ask candidates for their impressions of the College and without fail they comment on how wonderful our students are, the supportive team ethos amongst staff and how friendly and welcoming the College is.

We are a tight-knit unit striving for the very best for our students and we are focussed on, and passionate about, learning and success.

We genuinely care about our staff, their well-being and their professional development: we are a happy team, committed to working collaboratively and sharing the very best practice and we can offer:

- A laptop for every teacher
- Timetabled Work from Home (WFH) sessions
- Regular staff well-being activities
- Free access to our sporting facilities
- Free flu jab organised through a local pharmacy
